Adrienne Weber
Campaign Manager

Adrienne Weber brings a wide range of experience and skills to Legacy Leaders. Combining her graduate level training with her past experience in the financial sector, Adrienne brings in depth knowledge of project planning and management to her role as Campaign Manager.

Adrienne is fluent in French and has travelled extensively throughout Europe, North America, and Africa. Her experience also includes working on projects concerning government policy, public sector institutions and the judicial system in Africa.

A SSHRC scholarship recipient, Adrienne holds her Honours BA in History from Concordia University and her Masters in History from the University of Toronto, and has completed training in Cultural Dynamics, Mediation and Group Management. Adrienne has volunteered in a number of roles, most notably with youth programs.
